TOUR ITINERARY

Thursday, 07 October

Today depart Auckland bound for Sydney. Upon arrival board your coach to the Menzies Hotel Sydney. This evening meet fellow tour members and your tour hosts in the hotel bar for a few drinks and nibbles.

Friday, 08 October

After breakfast we board our coach to Bathurst, which will take us straight to the Mt Panorama to take in the days racing action. This is approximately a three hour journey. After a day of thrills and spills on the course, we head by coach to the Panthers League Club for an evening function including dinner and beverages. (Driver appearance to be confirmed)

Saturday, 09 October

Enjoy a hearty breakfast this morning before boarding the coach to the track. Today revel in a full support race programme including a 3 hour GT Production Car Race, the Formula Fords and Sports Sedans. At the end of racing ensure you board the coach for your return to your motel.

Sunday, 10 October

Today after three days of tweaking and tuning both Ford and Holden will be at their best to battle it out on the track for the 2010 Supercheap Auto Bathurst 1000. After the big race we will return to your accommodation.

Monday, 11 October

This morning after breakfast we make our way back to Sydney International Airport in time for your return flight home.

TOUR HOSTS

WILLIE KAY

Willie lives and breathes motor racing. Currently a promoter and Track Manager at Bay Park Speedway, Willie has been involved with motor racing for almost 30 years as driver, mechanic, manager, promoter and tour escort. Willie has a depth of motor racing knowledge that is unsurpassed making him a huge hit with our tour members.

HAROLD WOOTTEN

Like Willie, Harold is also a motor racing aficionado with more than 3 decades in the industry. Harold has seen many angles of motorsport, and as well as having raced extensively himself, is currently a team owner in the New Zealand Toyota Racing Series. Harold has attended Bathurst many times which makes him an asset to this tour.
